Tedesco Hosts First Italian-American Month Celebration

On October 8, 2015, Bergen County's first Italian American County Executive Jim Tedesco hosted the county's Italian American Heritage Month Celebration and Flag Raising Ceremony. The event included remarks from Tedesco and UNICO's Ralph Contini, a cultural performance from Mauro Salamone of the Sicilian Federation of New Jersey, a keynote speech from Roberto Frangione, Deputy Consul General of the Consulate of the Republic of Italy, and recognition of several esteemed Bergen County Italian-Americans for their contributions to their community. Attached are selected photos from the event.
